Overview

100 years ago, Rudyard Kipling visited Burma and “thought it quite unlike any land you know about.” We truly agree! Based on the 2013 political reforms, including the release and ascendancy of Aung San Suu Kyi, Burma has opened up dramatically. Due in part to Burma’s self-imposed isolation, Western influence—particularly the grittier commercial aspects—are not to be found here. You will see few Burmese dressed in Western garb and you will see no Starbucks or McDonalds here (yet!). Irrawaddy river cruising, the sprawling temple complex of Bagan, lush, green, Inle Lake and historical Yangon are among the reasons why Burma is Bev’s favorite Southeast Asia destination.

Day 2

Arrive Yangon

Upon arrival at Yangon and clearing immigrations, you will be met by your private guide and transferred to the Governor’s Residence.

Governor’s Residence (RL)

Similar to the other “luxury” hotels throughout Burma, the Governor’s Residence is in need of renovation from the many years of economic sanctions levied on the country.

That being said, this Victorian (teak) boutique former mansion is our favorite hotel in Yangon. Located in the leafy embassy district of the city, the rooms have a nice aesthetic with local Burmese wares displayed throughout. The Governor’s Residence is a particularly special place in the evening, with the property and lush grounds illuminated.

Day 3

Yangon

After breakfast, you will begin youy private touring of Yangon in Burma. Botataung will be one of your first stops, with stunning golden interior. You will continue your tour with the following stopovers: Gems Museum, Scott Market with outstanding local crafts, Musmeah Yeshua (the city’s only synagogue), the famed Shwedagon Pagoda, and The Last Mughal’s Tomb in Yangon.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodations: The Governor's Residence

Day 4

Fly Yangon/Bagan

Upon arrival in Bagan, you will be privately transferred to Thiripyitsaya Sanctuary Resort and have the balance of the evening to enjoy the amenities of this place.

The Thiripyitsaya Sanctuary Resort

The Thiripyitsaya Sanctuary Resort is located on the banks of the Irrawaddy River overlooking 800 years of history. Once a Government VIP guest hotel, the Thiripyitsaya is now a collection of 70 bungalow rooms amid a beautiful setting of tropical gardens. Although we feel this is the very best nongovernment hotel in Bagan, the rooms are dated and not really deserving of a 5 star status. Nevertheless, as with other hotels in Burma, the service here is heartfelt and sincere.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: The Thiripyitsaya Sanctuary Resort

Day 5

Bagan

The sunrise hot air balloon ride is an experience that is not to be missed! We feel this balloon experience is among the best in Asia. Due to its high popularity, this must be booked many months in advance. Following your hot air balloon ride and breakfast, you will journey to the Nyaung Oo local market for a taste of Burmese commerce culture. Soon after you visit the imposing Dhammayangyi Pahto Temple, perhaps the most compelling temple in all of Bagan! We are able to suggest further noteworthy temples, each with incredible architectural and interior design. You will later board the Sanctuary Ananda River Cruiser for your 3 Night Sanctuary Ananda River Cruise.

Sanctuary Ananda River Cruise (RL)

The Sanctuary Ananda is a 21 all-suite vessel that will surely lift Burma river cruising to a whole new high-touch, luxury level. Limited to 41 passengers, the Ananda will offer many nice amenities, including its own spa and gym, and all cabins offering individually controlled air conditioning (a real blessing given Burma's stifling heat)!

The luxury suites offer private butler service, "monsoon" showers and L'Occitane en Provence bathroom amenities (yes, our beloved Provence on the Irrawaddy). Similar to the Paukan vessels, the new Ananda's shallow draft will allow village stopovers along the river which makes the cruising so much more culturally compelling. This is the big drawback for the large, ponderous Road to Mandalay luxury vessel.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Accommodations: Sanctuary Ananda Cruise

Day 6

Irrawaddy River Cruise

For those who wish, a visit to the Sanctuary adopted village of Sin Kyun can be arranged. This wonderful community will show you the typical life of the villagers, a way of life seldom viewed by outsiders. The RV

Ananda will then sail to Mingun, a journey that will give you a wonderful glimpse into river life on the Irrawaddy.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Sanctuary Ananda Cruise

Day 7

Irrawaddy River Cruise

Early in the morning you will proceed downstream to Bagan. After breakfast (if time permits) you will visit another river village. Bagan is one of the richest archeological sites in Asia—over 2,000 pagodas, stupas, temples, and monasteries were built during the Bagan Dynasty in 1044 AD.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodations: Sanctuary Ananda Cruise

Day 8

Arrive Mandalay

Upon arrival in Mandalay, you will check-in to the Sedona Hotel and freshen up. Mandalay stands as one of the country's major cultural centers – nearly 60 percent of all monks in Myanmar reside in Mandalay. You will have the opportunity to visit the Shwenandaw Monastery, Mandalay Hill, and end with the truly unique 1.2 KM Ubein Teak Bridge.

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: Sedona Hotel Mandalay

Day 9

Fly Mandalay/Heho-Inle Lake

Upon arrival to Heho, you will be transferred to Nyaung Shwe Village where you will take a thirty minute long boat ride (this is most fun!) to Inle Princess Resort. Situated on Inle Lake and surrounded by the Shan Hill, this place is a picturesque region surrounded by floating gardens and stilt houses.

Inle Princess Resort (RL)

Although somewhat dated, Bev, Zen and I feel the Inle Princess Resort is the finest resort in the area. Made up of 46 Shan-style wooden chalets, the staff and service here is most heartwarming. The resort's gardens and surrounding islands are lush, green and most welcoming. We felt we had our best Burmese massage at the small spa here. The sunsets here are beyond beautiful!

Meals: Breakfast

Accommodations: Inle Princess Resort

Day 10

Heho (Inle Lake)

You will begin your day with a visit to the Five-Day Market (Mine Thauk Market)—a rotating market that changes locations every five days and is where the local hill tribes come to buy and sell their goods, and Nampan Village. In the afternoon you will cruise through a lushly forested river to visit a collection of ancient Shan style stupas.

Day 11

Sagar

Today you will set out on a full day tour of Sagar, a lush relatively unexplored area that many of us consider the “real” Inle Lake. With few tourists venturing this far out, you may look back on this day as your truly authentic Burmese outdoor experience. Of special note here are the many sunken stupas (over 100) creating a serene, somewhat spiritual atmosphere.
